

Town of Wallingford, Connecticut Poet Laureate Program

“Poetry is what in a poem makes you laugh, cry, prickle, be silent, makes your toe nails twinkle, makes you want to do this or that or nothing, makes you know that you are alone in the unknown world, that your bliss and suffering is forever shared and forever all your own.” - Dylan Thomas

The mission of Wallingford’s Poet Laureate Program is to communicate the value of poetry and use poetry as a means to engage, educate, and entertain the community at large. The Poet Laureate of the Town of Wallingford serves as an ambassador of the community’s vibrant literary life, promoting its literary community, and celebrating the written word.

Objectives of the Poet Laureate Program

- Promote poetry as a form of communication having value—informing, teaching, inspiring and entertaining—in the everyday life of town residents
- Inspire an emerging generation of critical thinkers and writers
- Encourage the reading and writing of literature and poetry
- Promote poetry as a form of literature that has deep roots among people of all ages and cultures

Roles of the Poet Laureate

- Promote reading, understanding, and writing of poetry
- Develop working relationships with other poets and teachers of poetry to present poetry writing workshops to teenagers and adults
- Write a “Poets Corner” column for the Library’s newsletter in which poems having value for readers’ lives would be presented and reflected upon
- Develop an Introduction to Poetry program for members of the public who are curious about poetry and would be interested in learning how to read, understand, and perhaps write poetry
- Develop a poetry program involving local poets that would broadcast from local television and/or radio stations
- Upon invitation, be a guest in local public schools to complement teaching of skills and understanding needed by students for reading, writing, and listening to poems
- Read published or commissioned poems at public events (e.g., swearing-in ceremonies, holiday celebrations, convocations, graduations) and community-based group events
- Represent Wallingford in the Connecticut Coalition of Poets Laureate

Terms of Service

- The term of the Wallingford Poet Laureate is two years. The Poet Laureate may apply for a second term but shall serve for no more than two consecutive terms. In the event of a vacancy between terms, an interim Poet Laureate may be appointed by the Search and Review Committee to serve until the following April.
- The Poet Laureate of Wallingford is an honorary position and carries no stipend.

Eligibility

- To be considered, a nominee must be a poet and resident of Wallingford, or employed in Wallingford, and available and willing to collaborate with other town poets to develop and present poetry-related activities that address the objectives of the laureate program.
- Interested poets can self-nominate or be nominated by others.

Criteria

- Breadth of experiences in poetry including writing, publishing, teaching, critiquing, leading groups, planning and presenting activities, attending poetry courses, and reading poems in public.
- Comfort with public speaking
- Ability and willingness to advance poetry in the public domain, and to participate in various public gatherings and educational sessions throughout his or her term.
- Distinguished achievements

Application Review and Selection Process

A Search & Review Committee, the members of which are appointed by the Wallingford Public Library, will be comprised of the following representatives:

- The Wallingford Public Library's Community Services Librarian or designee
- A member of Wallingford's Saturday Mornings with Poetry collective
- A member(s) of the local education community (e.g., English teacher from Sheehan, Lyman Hall, and/or Choate Rosemary Hall)
- A poetry faculty member from a college or university in Connecticut
- The present or a former poet laureate from Wallingford, if available

Application Process

All nominees must submit two copies of the following information:

- A completed application form, available for download from Wallingford Public Library's website
- A brief artist's statement or personal philosophy that describes how the nominee intends to approach the scope of the work and the objectives of this program
- A sample of up to five poems by the nominated poet, citing sources if the work has been published
- A resume or CV
- Two letters of recommendation

Application Deadline: February 28, 2018.

All materials must be addressed to the Wallingford Public Library Poet Laureate Search & Review Committee. Hand deliveries must be received no later than 5 p.m. on the deadline date. Mail deliveries must be postmarked on or before the deadline date. Submissions will not be returned.
